Rome

Posted Sep 7, 2023 - Requisition No. 118694

APPLY NOW

Bloomberg News is seeking a government and policy reporter to join its experienced team in Rome.

You'll be covering all aspects of Italian politics as the Meloni government begins to flex its populist credentials and test investors' patience. You'll be tapping sources to break news on how government policy impacts financial markets and the economy and explain with clarity the importance of the news to both the specialist client and the well-informed layperson.

We're looking for a reporter who is passionate about breaking news and who is keen to collaborate with teammates, both within their area of expertise and beyond. The position is in Rome.

WE'LL TRUST YOU TO:

- Develop sources to generate intelligent, high-impact, market-moving scoops
- Delve into longer form stories that put our scoops into a broader context
- Cover the beat with enthusiasm, speed and accuracy
- Talk about your stories on Bloomberg TV, Bloomberg Radio and Bloomberg Quicktake
- Represent Bloomberg on domestic TV, radio and other media channels
- Write insightful, thought-provoking stories that add new value
- Collaborate with colleagues across our more than 120 bureaus globally

YOU'LL NEED TO HAVE:

- Minimum of three years reporting and experience of political, economic or business journalism.
- A proven ability to build sourcing
- Fluent English and Italian

Apply if you think we're a good match. We'll get in touch to let you know that the next steps are, but in the meantime feel free to have a look at:
